Redreaming the Dream

A Spiritual and Missional
Refocusing Weekend for Today's Church

March 26 – 28, 2010

Led by
Eric W. Ramsey &
Gaye Ramsey

Why do a Redreaming the Dream Weekend?

This event is more than a conference, more than “revival meetings,” and more than a strategy workshop. It is biblically centered, spiritually stirring, and results in strategic and practical mobilization of God’s people – the church being the church.

What will I do during this weekend?

This is an incredible weekend of discovery; both for you personally and for the church body as a whole. This weekend, you will:

1. Reconstruct a solid Biblical foundation for why we do what we do.
2. Discover your primary spiritual gift(s).
3. Identify your God-given passion(s).
4. Identify your gifts and talents.
5. Consider why God made you and placed you here for such a time as this.
6. Discover your church’s strengths.
7. Discover the greatest needs in your community.
8. Discover how to “be the church” God called you to be.
9. Decipher the missional code for reaching your community with the gospel of Jesus Christ.
10. Develop a customized plan for impacting your community with the gospel of Jesus Christ.

Each and every session is critical as each one builds upon the previous. You will receive your own workbook which will serve as a Biblical, self-discovery, church discovery, and process guide.

What will the weekend look like?

6:30 PM Friday Evening Church-Wide Dinner and Kick-Off

Every person planning to participate in the weekend needs to be at this event kick-off. We will enjoy a church-wide dinner and great fellowship. Each participant will receive their workbook, and Eric will lay a foundation and set the course for our journey.

Saturday Men’s Breakfast and Women’s Brunch

The men’s breakfast, led by Eric, and the women’s brunch led by Gaye will be a fun interactive time of discovering how God made each of us; and determining how God might utilize our unique make-up, individually and corporately, to impact His kingdom. This is always a time of fun, laughter, encouragement, and insightful discoveries.

Saturday Joint Session

This is where we examine the psychographic profile of our community and the mission field God has placed before us. This will be compared to the surfacing strengths of the church. This becomes a large group “dream session.”

Saturday Leadership Workshop

This is where things really start coming together. Based on what we have learned about our church, and learned about the community, we will begin developing a customized plan for a completely new level of engagement with our community.

Sunday Morning Worship

This morning is a time of spiritual introspection, renewal, and commitment. We will each have the opportunity to commit or recommit ourselves to God, His church, and His mission.

Sunday Afternoon Leadership Workshop

This is the final assembly of the one-year outreach, missions, and evangelism strategy for our church. Hard work, but exciting work!

Sunday Evening Worship

Tonight we will present the one-year strategy, and celebrate a new day in the life of our church – a day that will have an eternal impact!
